

PUBLIC PRESCRIPTION
DRUG INSURANCE PLAN

What it costs you

July 1, 2018
to June 30, 2019

Your invoice explained

Prescription cost	—	Your contribution	=	Amount paid by the Régie
Cost of the medication +		Monthly deductible Set amount ($19.90) paid for your first purchases of the month +		Cost of the prescription — Your contribution
Pharmacist's fee		Co-insurance Amount equivalent to 34.9% of the cost of the prescription minus the deductible, where applicable

Excess amount	Contribution paid to date	Amount remaining
Additional amount paid by the insured person corresponding to the difference between the cost of the medication appearing on the List of Medications and the amount paid by the Régie. This amount is not factored into the calculation of the maximum monthly contribution. Generally, it is the difference between the cost of a brand name medication and the cost of a generic version.	Amount paid since the beginning of the month, including the day's purchase.	Difference between the maximum monthly contribution amount and the contribution paid to date.

As of September 15, 2017, each of these amounts must be separately indicated.

At the pharmacy

When filing your income tax return

Under the public plan, your premium is calculated based on your net family income. To calculate it, you have to complete Schedule K of your Québec income tax return. In some situations, a person may not have to pay any premium. For more information, refer to line 447 in the guide to the income tax return.

WHEN YOU FILE YOUR INCOME TAX RETURN

Premium paid to Revenu Québec	$0 to $616 per year (depending on your net family income)

RENEWING A PRESCRIPTION BEFORE THE EXPECTED DATE

You pay your contribution (deductible and co-insurance) as if you had purchased your medication on the expected renewal date. Please note that medications purchased outside Québec are not reimbursed by the public plan.

The information in this pamphlet does not have force of law and does not apply to all specific cases.

1. Issued by the Ministère du Travail, de l'Emploi et de la Solidarité sociale.
2. Rate calculated according to the Act respecting prescription drug insurance.
3. Under certain conditions.

Prescription Drug Insurance IS COMPULSORY!

In Québec, everyone must be covered. If you become eligible for a private plan, you must join that plan and deregister from the public plan. You can register or deregister on the Régie's website.
